

has been changed in order to keep up with the shifting threat landscape.

The NCSR is an annual voluntary self-assessment that is hosted on LogicManager, which is a technology platform that provides a foundation for managing policies, controls, risks, assessments, and deficiencies across organizational lines of business. The NCSR self-assessment runs every year, usually from October–February. In efforts to increase participation, the deadline is sometimes extended. The target audience for the NCSR are personnel within the SLTT community who are responsible for the cybersecurity management within their organization.

Through the NCSR, CISA and MS-ISAC will examine relationships, interactions, and processes governing IT management and the ability to effectively manage operational risk. Using the anonymous results of the NCSR, CISA delivers a biannual summary report to Congress that provides a broad picture of the cybersecurity gaps and capabilities of SLTT governments across the nation. The bi-annual summary report is shared with MS-ISAC members, NCSR End Users, and Congress. The report is also available on the MS-ISAC website, <https://www.cisecurity.org/ms-isac/services/ncsr/>.

Upon submission of the NCSR self-assessment, participants will immediately receive access to several reports specific to their organization and their cybersecurity posture. Additionally, after the annual NCSR survey closes there will be a brief NCSR End User Survey offered to everyone who completed the NCSR assessment. The survey will provide feedback on participants' experiences, such as how they heard about the NCSR, what they found or did not find useful, how they will utilize the results of their assessment, and other information about their current and future interactions with the NCSR.

The NCSR End User survey follows the regular NCSR and will also be fully electronic. It contains 10 multiple choice and fill-in-the-blank answers and takes approximately 10 minutes to complete. The feedback survey will be administered via Qualtrics, and settings will be updated to opt out of collecting participants' IP addresses.

The NCSR is a voluntary self-assessment designed to measure the gaps and capabilities of cybersecurity programs within state, local, tribal and territorial governments. As it is voluntary, we do not know the number of potential respondents. To estimate the number of respondents, we looked at past participation to forecast what participation in the next three years would be. We then took the average of the three-year projection as our estimated annual respondents. This gave us an estimated 3,719 annual respondents. Table 1 presents the estimated number of respondents, based on historical data.
