Section 206(b) of the ATPA requires that each report include:

(1) the actual effect of the ATPA on the U.S. economy generally as well as on specific domestic industries which produce articles that are like, or directly competitive with, articles being imported under the ATPA from beneficiary countries;

(2) the probable future effect that the ATPA will have on the U.S. economy generally and on such domestic industries before the provisions of the ATPA terminate; and

(3) the estimated effect that the ATPA has had on drug-related crop eradication and crop substitution efforts of beneficiary countries.

Under the statute, the Commission is required to prepare this report regardless of whether duty-free treatment or other preferential treatment was provided during the period covered by the report. During the period to be covered by this report, calendar years 2022 and 2023, no imports entering the United States received preferential treatment under the ATPA.

The Commission does not plan to hold a public hearing in conjunction with this investigation. The Commission will submit its report by September 30, 2024.
