SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background: The Davis-Bacon Act (DBA), as enacted in 1931 and subsequently amended, requires the payment of minimum prevailing wages determined by the Department of Labor to laborers and mechanics working on federal contracts in excess of $2,000 for the construction, alteration, or repair, including painting and decorating, of public buildings and public works. See 40 U.S.C. 3141 et seq. Congress has also included the Davis-Bacon requirements in numerous other laws, known as the Davis-Bacon Related Acts (the Related Acts and, collectively with the Davis-Bacon Act, the DBRA), which provide federal assistance for construction projects through grants, loans, loan guarantees, insurance, and other methods.

The Copeland Act (40 U.S.C. 3145) requires the Secretary of Labor to prescribe reasonable regulations for contractors and subcontractors engaged in construction work subject to Davis-Bacon labor standards. While the federal contracting or assistance-administering agencies have a primary responsibility for enforcement of these labor standards, Reorganization Plan Number 14 of 1950 assigns to the Secretary of Labor responsibility for developing government-wide policies, interpretations and procedures to be observed by the contracting and assisting agencies, in order to assure coordination of administration and consistency of DBRA enforcement. 15 FR 3176, reprinted as amended in 5 U.S.C. app. 1.

The Copeland Act provision cited above specifically requires the regulations to “include a provision that each contractor and subcontractor each week must furnish a statement on the wages paid each employee during the prior week.” This requirement is implemented by 29 CFR 3.3 and 3.4 and the standard Davis-Bacon contract clauses set forth at 29 CFR 5.5. The regulation at 29 CFR 5.5 (a)(3)(ii)(A) (“Frequency and method of submission”) requires contractors to submit weekly a copy of all payrolls to the federal agency contracting for or financing the construction project. If the agency is not a party to the contract, the contractor will submit the payrolls to the applicant, sponsor, or owner, as the case may be, for transmission to the contracting agency. This provision requires that the payrolls submitted shall set out, accurately and completely, the information that is required to be maintained under 29 CFR 5.5(a)(3)(ii)(B) (“Information required”).

The information that must be included in the weekly transmittals includes the name of each covered worker; each worker’s correct classification(s) of work actually performed; hourly rates of wages paid (including rates of contributions or costs anticipated for bona fide fringe benefits or cash equivalents thereof of the types described in 40 U.S.C. 3141(2)(B) of the Davis-Bacon Act); daily and weekly number of hours actually worked in total and on each covered contract; deductions made; and actual wages paid. The weekly transmittals also must include an individually identifying number for each employee (e.g., the last four digits of the employee’s Social Security number).

The provision at 29 CFR 5.5(a)(3)(ii)(B) also states what must not be included in the weekly transmittal. The weekly transmittal must not include workers’ full social security numbers, last known addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses. That information must be recorded and maintained by the contractors as part of the record-keeping provisions in the regulations at 29 CFR 5.5(a)(3)(i)(B), but it must not be included in the weekly transmittals.

The regulations at 29 CFR 5.5(a)(3)(ii)(C) and 29 CFR 3.3(b) require each contractor to furnish weekly a signed “Statement of Compliance” accompanying the payroll indicating the payrolls are correct and complete and that each laborer or mechanic has been paid not less than the proper Davis-Bacon Act prevailing wage rate for the work performed.

The required weekly payroll information may be submitted in any form desired. The information collection request that is the subject of this notice, Optional Form WH-347, is designed to include fields for all of the necessary information so as to satisfy
