Center for the HHS Coordination Operations and Response Element

In 2022, the Secretary of HHS transitioned the DOD-HHS partnership that was formerly called Operation Warp Speed into ASPR as the HHS Coordination and Operations Response Element or H-CORE. Moving H-CORE fully into ASPR provided ASPR with sole responsibility for the development, manufacture, and distribution of the nation's COVID-19 vaccines and therapeutics.

H-CORE reports to the Administrator and Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response (the ASPR) and works in partnership with other entities across ASPR, such as the Center for the Biomedical Advanced Research and Development Authority (BARDA), the Center for the Strategic National Stockpile (SNS), and the Center for Industrial Base Management and Supply Chain (IBMSC), to deploy vaccines, therapeutics, and other medical countermeasures products and supplies to the American public during infectious disease outbreaks and other public health emergencies. H-CORE coordinates and accelerates the logistics readiness and operations in response to infectious diseases, public health emergencies, and disasters in support of the ASPR.

H-CORE is headed by a Deputy Assistant Secretary and includes the following components:

- Office Name Change: Update from Office of Analytics to Office of Analytics, Data, and IT
- Office Name Change: Update from Office of Plans to Office of Planning and Operational Coordination
- Office of Supply, Production, and Distribution
- New Office: Office of Infectious Disease Response
- Delete Office: Office of Security and Assurance
- Delete Office: Office of Vaccine Development Coordination
- Delete Office: Office of Therapeutics Development Coordination

I. Delegations of Authority: All delegations and redelegations of authority made to officials and employees of affected organizational components will endure pending further redelegation, provided they are consistent with this reorganization.

All updates herein supersede any prior directives pertaining to the establishment of Agency components, including but not limited to directives pertaining to the establishment of H-CORE.

The Administrator and Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response of ASPR, Dawn O'Connell, having reviewed and approved this document, authorizes Adam DeVore, who is the Federal Register Liaison, to electronically sign this document for purposes of publication in the Federal Register.
