SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The NCUA proposes to extend for three years, with revision, the NCUA Form 5300 Call Report.

OMB Number: 3133-0004.

Title: NCUA Form 5300 Call Report.

Type of Review: Revision and extension of a currently approved collection.

Abstract: Sections 106 and 202 of the Federal Credit Union Act require federally insured credit unions (FICUs) to make financial and other reports to the NCUA. Section 741.5 prescribes the method in which federally insured credit unions must submit this information to NCUA. NCUA Form 5300, Call Report, is used to file quarterly financial and statistical data through NCUA's online portal, CUOnline. The financial and statistical information is essential to NCUA in carrying out its responsibility for supervising federal credit unions. This information facilitates NCUA monitoring of credit unions with share accounts insured by the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund (NCUSIF).

Affected Public: Private sector: Not-for-profit institutions.

Respondents: All federally insured credit unions.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 4,533.

Estimated Average Burden per Response: 4.0 hours.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 72,528.

Reason for Change: The number of respondents decreased.

The proposed revisions to the Form 5300 instructions in this notice would not have a material impact on the existing burden estimates.

Legal Basis and Need for Collections: The Call Report Form 5300 information collections are mandatory under 12 U.S.C. 1756, 1766, and 1782. Except for select sensitive items, the Call Report Form 5300 is not given confidential treatment.

Credit union data reported on the Call Report is essential to the NCUA supervision and regulation of federal credit unions. This information also facilitates the NCUA monitoring of other credit unions with share accounts insured by the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund.

Credit unions submit Call Report data to the NCUA quarterly. Call Report data serve a regulatory or public policy purpose by assisting the NCUA in fulfilling its mission of ensuring the safety and soundness of individual credit unions and the credit union system, protecting consumer financial rights, as well as agency-specific missions affecting federal and state-chartered credit unions, such as ensuring financial stability and administering share insurance.

Form 5300—Call Report—Proposed Changes

Schedule A, Section 4

(1) Adding two accounts for credit unions to report the number and amount of loans granted to credit union officials and senior executive staff year-to-date. This information will enhance NCUA's offsite supervision.

(2) Removing two accounts for credit unions to report information related to Purchased Credit Impaired Loans. These accounts are no longer required to be disclosed by generally accepted accounting principles.

Schedule C, Section 4

(1) Removing three accounts where credit unions previously reported information related to FRB Paycheck Protection Program Lending Facility loans. The Paycheck Protection Program Lending Facility is no longer available.

(2) Adding one account for credit unions to report assets pledged to secure deposits, other funding arrangements, and other counterparty requirements. Adding this information will provide insight into the amount of total pledged assets and the availability of unencumbered assets to secure future borrowings.

Schedule D, Section 2

(1) Adding three accounts for credit unions to report the number and amount of member brokered non-maturity shares. NCUA will use this information to evaluate funding behavior and market trends.

(2) Adding five accounts for credit unions to report the number and amount of member brokered term shares by remaining maturity. NCUA will use this information to evaluate funding behavior and market trends.

(3) Adding three accounts for credit unions to report the number and amount of nonmember brokered non-maturity deposits. NCUA will use this information to evaluate funding behavior and market trends.

(4) Adding five accounts for credit unions to report the number and amount of nonmember brokered term deposits by remaining maturity. NCUA will use this information to evaluate funding behavior and market trends.

(5) Adding five accounts for credit unions to report the number and amount of all other nonmember deposits by remaining maturity. Adding this information will enable a more complete assessment of nonmember deposits.

(6) Changed the caption for “Accounts held by nonmember public units” to “Nonmember Public Unit Deposits”.

(7) Added an account for the amount of Nonmember Credit Union Deposits. NCUA will use this information to evaluate compliance with nonmember deposit regulatory requirements.

(8) Changed the caption for “Accounts Held by Member Public Units” to “Member Public Unit Deposits”.

(9) Added an account for credit unions to report the amount of Reciprocal Deposits. NCUA will use this information to evaluate funding behavior and market trends as competition for deposits continues to innovate.

Schedule D, Section 3

(1) Added three accounts for credit unions to report the maturity distribution of total uninsured shares and deposits. NCUA will use this information to evaluate depositor behavior and the movement between uninsured non-maturity shares and share certificates.

Request for Comment: Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and included in the request for Office of Management and Budget approval. All comments will become a matter of public record. The public is invited to submit comments concerning: (a) whether the proposed revisions to the collection of information that are the subject of this notice are necessary for the proper performance of the function of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the agency’s estimate of the burden of the collection of information as proposed to be revised, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on the respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

By the National Credit Union Administration Board.

Melane Conyers-Ausbrooks,
Secretary of the Board.

NATIONAL FOUNDATION ON THE ARTS AND THE HUMANITIES

30-Day Notice for the “Arts Basic Survey”; Proposed Collection; Comment Request

AGENCY: National Endowment for the Arts.

ACTION: Notice, request for comments, collection of information.

SUMMARY: The National Endowment for the Arts (NEA), as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the NEA is soliciting comments concerning the proposed collection of information for the Arts Basic Survey. Copies of this ICR, with applicable supporting documentation, may be obtained by visiting www.Reginfo.gov.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the address section below within 30 days from the date of this publication in the Federal Register.

ADDRESSES: Written comments and recommendations for the proposed information collection should be sent within 30 days from the date of publication of this Notice to www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain. Find this particular information collection by selecting, “National Endowment for the Arts” under “Currently Under Review;” then check “Only Show ICR for Public Comment” checkbox. Once you have found this information collection request, select “Comment,” and enter or upload your comment and information.

Alternatively, comments can be sent to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Attn: OMB Desk Officer for the National Endowment for the Arts, Office of Management and Budget, Room 10235, Washington, DC 20503, or call (202) 395–7316, within 30 days from the date of this publication in the Federal Register.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the Agency’s estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting the electronic submissions of responses.
