Abstract: A party affected by a decision of a Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Officer may appeal that decision to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA or Board), provided that the Board has jurisdiction pursuant to 8 CFR 1003.1(b). The party must complete the Form EOIR-29 and submit it to the DHS office having administrative control over the record of proceeding in order to exercise its regulatory right to appeal.

EOIR has revised the form so that respondents can provide a safe mailing address where they can safely and timely receive mail. EOIR has made the following substantive changes to the form: allowing respondents to provide a safe mailing address and to designate another individual to receive mail; and including new fields for the respondent's street address, apartment or unit number, city, state, and zip code, rather than a single field for the respondent's address. In addition, EOIR has made the following non-substantive changes: modifying the appearance and formatting of the General Instructions; revising the existing form instructions for clarity; and updating links to web pages and resources embedded throughout the form. EOIR intends these revisions to reduce the public's burden in completing the form and to reduce the Agency's processing time for each form.
