

Commission Rule 210.50(a)(4), 19 CFR 210.50(a)(4).

On July 29, 2024, NOCO responded to Respondents' and OUII's contingent petitions for review of the FID. On the same day, Respondents responded to NOCO's petition (but did not respond to OUII's contingent petition), and OUII responded to NOCO's and Respondents' petitions.

The Commission, having reviewed the record in this investigation, including the FID and the parties' petitions and responses thereto, has determined to review in part and, on review, to affirm the FID's finding of no violation. In particular, the Commission has determined to review and, on review, to clarify the FID's jurisdictional findings by explaining that the Commission's investigative authority is statutory and that the terms "subject matter jurisdiction," "personal jurisdiction," and "in rem jurisdiction" are not relevant to the Commission's investigative authority under section 337. The Commission has also determined to review and, on review, to affirm with supplemental analysis the FID's construction of the USB terms recited in the '023 and '243 patents. The Commission has further determined to review and, on review, to affirm with supplemental analysis the FID's findings that the asserted claims of the '023 and the '243 patents are invalid under 35 U.S.C. 103 and are not invalid under 35 U.S.C. 112. Lastly, the Commission has determined to review and, on review, to take no position with respect to the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement. The Commission has determined not to review the remainder of the FID.

The Commission issues its opinion herewith setting forth its determinations on certain issues. The investigation is terminated.

The Commission vote for this determination took place on October 7, 2024.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: October 7, 2024.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.
