CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION BUREAU

Supervisory Highlights: Special Edition Auto Finance

AGENCY: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau.

ACTION: Supervisory highlights.

SUMMARY: The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB or Bureau) is issuing its thirty fifth edition of Supervisory Highlights.

DATES: The findings in this edition of Supervisory Highlights cover select examinations related to auto-finance that were generally completed from November 1, 2023, to August 30, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jaclyn Sellers, Senior Counsel, at (202) 435–7449. If you require this document in an alternative electronic format, please contact CFPB_Accessibility@cfpb.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

1. Introduction

This edition of Supervisory Highlights focuses on the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's (CFPB's) work to put the brakes on wrongdoing in the auto-finance market. The impact of this market on American families is significant. Auto loan debt exceeds all other household-debt categories except for home mortgages. As of the second quarter of 2024, Americans owe $1.616 trillion in auto loan debt.¹

The auto-finance market enables people to buy vehicles necessary for important life functions, such as driving to work, school, and medical appointments. But when auto-finance companies violate the law it can have serious consequences for families, from having to pay money they do not owe to losing their vehicle.

This Supervisory Highlights issue covers significant findings across all aspects of consumers' experiences with the auto-finance market. It reports on consumers being lured in through deceptive advertising about available loan terms and failing to receive accurate and complete disclosures at origination, having their payments misapplied or incorrect information
