Regulations Implementing the Change in Bank Control Act; Extension of Comment Period

AGENCY: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking; extension of comment period.

SUMMARY: On August 19, 2024, the FDIC published in the Federal Register a proposed rule that would amend its filing requirements and processing procedures for notices filed under the Change in Bank Control Act (CBCA). The proposed rule provided for a 60-day comment period, which closes on October 18, 2024. The FDIC has determined that an extension of the comment period until November 18, 2024, is appropriate. This action will allow interested parties additional time to analyze the proposal and prepare comments.

DATES: The comment period for the proposed rule published at 89 FR 67002 (August 19, 2024) is extended. Comments must be received on or before November 18, 2024.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On August 19, 2024, the FDIC published in the Federal Register at 89 FR 67002 a proposed rule amending its filing requirements and processing procedures for notices filed under the CBCA. The proposed rule would remove the exemption from the notice requirement for acquisitions of voting securities of a depository institution holding company with an FDIC-supervised subsidiary institution for which the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System reviews a notice under the CBCA and make conforming definitional changes. The proposed rule stated that the comment period would close on October 18, 2024. However, to provide additional opportunity for the public to prepare comments to address the matters raised by the proposed rule, the FDIC is extending the comment period for the CBCA-related proposed rule from October 18, 2024, to November 18, 2024.
