

sent to the Responsible Official identified in ADDRESSES. Requests for repatriation may be submitted by:

1. Any one or more of the Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations identified in this notice.

2. Any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the requestor is a lineal descendant or a culturally affiliated Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

Repatriation of the human remains in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after November 29, 2024. If competing requests for repatriation are received, the PMAE must determine the most appropriate requestor prior to repatriation. Requests for joint repatriation of the human remains are considered a single request and not competing requests. The PMAE is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribe identified in this notice.

Abstract of Information Available

Based on the information available, human remains representing, at least, four individuals have been reasonably identified. No associated funerary objects are present.

1. The mourning lock was donated to UNSM in 1909 by Major W.J. Turner

2. The 2 mourning locks were donated to UNSM at an unknown time and date

3. Patrick Ryan originally donated the scalp lock. He acquired the lock from the Manderson Indian Collection, which was in turn acquired by the Omaha Public Library (OPL). OPL loaned the item to the Joslyn Art Museum in 1949. The Joslyn then loaned the collection to the UNSM in 1974. The collection was transferred to the UNSM in May 2021.

4. The rattle with a scalp lock was donated to UNSM in 1909 by Major W. J. Turner

Cultural Affiliation

Based on the information available and the results of the consultation, cultural affiliation is reasonably identified by the geographical location or acquisition history of the human remains described in this notice.

Determinations

The University of Nebraska State Museum has determined that:

- The human remains described in this notice represent the physical remains of four individuals of Native American ancestry.

- There is a reasonable connection between the human remains described in this notice and the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe of North & South Dakota.
