The Census Bureau is planning two national webinars to be held on December 11, 2024, and January 15, 2025, with federally and State recognized Tribes, which will provide a forum for Tribes to learn about its Race/Ethnicity Coding Improvement Project and provide feedback. The Race/Ethnicity Coding Improvement Project provides an opportunity for Tribes to provide feedback on how detailed race and/or ethnicity and American Indian or Alaska Native populations will be coded in the American Community Survey (ACS) and the 2030 Census. The Census Bureau aims to enhance and improve the code list that was used in the 2020 Census and is currently used in the ACS to ensure that detailed race and/or ethnicity and Tribal responses are accurately coded and tabulated in future data collections.

The webinars will provide information on how to interpret and understand the code list and its impact on the data Tribes receive. Tribal leaders will have the opportunity to provide feedback on alternative terms, abbreviations, or in-language terms that individuals may use to identify themselves as a citizen of their Tribes and any groups that may be missing or misclassified in the code list. We are providing Tribes for their review the proposed code list and Federal Register Notice with background information about this project. The Census Bureau is seeking feedback from Tribal governments on the following questions:

1. Are there any groups missing from the proposed code list? If so, please identify them and suggest how the groups should be classified and why.

2. Are any groups on the proposed code list misclassified? If so, please identify them and suggest an alternative classification or indicate if the term should be removed.

3. Are there alternative terms, abbreviations, or in-language terms people may use to identify with a specific group that should be added to the proposed code list? If so, please identify them and suggest a classification.

In accordance with Executive Order 13175, Consultation and Coordination with Indian Tribal Governments, issued November 6, 2000, the Census Bureau has adhered to its Tribal consultation policy by seeking the input of Tribal governments in the planning and implementation of the ACS and the 2030 Census with the goal of ensuring the most accurate counts and data for the American Indian or Alaska Native population. In that regard, the Census Bureau is seeking comments on the proposed race/ethnicity code list: <https://www2.census.gov/programs-surveys/demo/2030-race-and-or-ethnicity-code-list/>.

Tribes will have until February 5, 2025, to review the proposed updates to the code list and provide input.

Robert L. Santos, Director, Census Bureau, approved the publication of this notice in the Federal Register.
