Description of the need for the information and proposed use: The Department needs to collect this information to establish an applicant’s eligibility for admittance to subsidized housing, specify which eligible applicants may be given priority over others, and prohibit racial discrimination in conjunction with the selection of tenants and unit assignments. The Department must specify tenant eligibility requirements and how tenants’ incomes, rents, and assistance must be verified and computed to prevent the Department from making improper payments to owners on behalf of assisted tenants. The Department also must provide annual reports to Congress and the public on the race/ethnicity and gender composition of subsidy program beneficiaries. This information is essential to maintain a standard of fair practices when assigning tenants to HUD Multifamily properties.

HUD must specify tenant eligibility requirements and how tenants’ incomes, rents, and assistance must be verified and computed to prevent HUD from making improper payments to owners on behalf of assisted tenants. These information collections are essential to reduce improper payment standards in providing $13 billion in rental assistance to low-income families in HUD Multifamily properties.

Respondents: Individuals or households, Businesses or other for-profit, Not-for-profit institutions, Federal Government, and State, Local, or Tribal Government.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 27,939.

Estimated Number of Responses: 334,960.

Frequency of Response: 1.

Average Hours per Response: 8.32.

Total Estimated Burden: 716,443.

B. Solicitation of Public Comment

This notice is soliciting comments from members of the public and affected parties concerning the collection of information described in Section A on the following:

(1) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) The accuracy of the agency’s estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information;

(3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Ways to minimize the burden of collecting information on those who are to respond, including using appropriate automated collection techniques or other information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

HUD encourages interested parties to submit comments in response to these questions.

C. Authority

Section 3507 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. 3507.

Jeffrey D. Little,

General Deputy Assistant Secretary for Housing—Federal Housing Administration.
