Applicant’s Representations

1. Applicant, a Delaware corporation, intends to register under the Act as a face-amount certificate company and operate as a registered face-amount certificate company. Applicant currently intends to offer two types of face-amount certificates registered under the Securities Act of 1933, face-amount certificates of the installment type (the “Installment Certificates”) and fully-paid certificates (the “Transferrable Certificates” and, together with the Installment Certificates, the “Certificates”). Applicant states that it does not contemplate, or seek approval for, custodial arrangements under which Applicant would deposit and maintain reserves associated with any face-amount certificates other than the Installment Certificates and Transferrable Certificates. Applicant represents that both types of Certificates will be issued and the fully-paid Certificates will be transferable using blockchain technology and, as a result, both types of Certificates will be “digital assets.” Applicant further represents that, although the Certificates will be digital assets, Applicant will not accept or hold any assets that are digital assets other than as necessary to destroy Certificates that have been surrendered.

2. The Certificates are interest-bearing debt securities. The Certificates entitle the Certificate holder to receive, at maturity, the face-amount of the Certificate and interest credited thereon, less applicable expenses or fees. To meet its payment obligations, Applicant is required to maintain a minimum amount of reserves in “qualified investments” as defined in Section 28(b) of the Act (“Reserves”).

3. Applicant proposes to enter into custodial arrangements, from time to time, with one or more banks as defined in Section 2(a)(5) of the Act, that possess the qualifications required by Section 26(a) of the Act for trustees of unit investment trusts (“Custodians”). Applicant seeks an order approving the Applicant’s proposed custodial arrangements under which the Applicant will (i) deposit and maintain, with one or more Custodians, the Reserves associated with the Certificates, pursuant to Section 28(c) of the Act, and (ii) enter into custody agreements (“Custodial Agreements”), the substantive portions of which will not vary in any material respects from those contained in the form of agreement attached to the application as Attachment 1 (the “Form of Agreement”). Under the requested order, Applicant would be free to employ or terminate the Custodians from time to time in its sole discretion.

4. Under the proposed custodial arrangements, one or more of the Custodians would be responsible for maintaining the safekeeping of all of Applicant’s assets, including the aggregate amount that Applicant must maintain as Reserves pursuant to Section 28(a) of the Act. The Custodian would (i) maintain Applicant’s Assets in compliance with Section 17(f) of the Act and the rules thereunder as though Section 17(f) and the rules thereunder were applicable to a face-amount certificate company and (ii) maintain Applicant’s Reserves to ensure the Applicant meets its payment obligations under the terms and conditions of any outstanding Certificate. If the Applicant were to default on any obligation under a Certificate, the Custodian would be authorized to cure such default by liquidating so much of the assets held by it as necessary to discharge Applicant’s obligations. The Custodian also would perform the duties and functions typically performed by a custodian, such as securities registration and delivery, income collection, periodic reporting, payment of monies, and other safekeeping and processing functions.

Applicant’s Legal Analysis

1. Section 28(c) provides that “[t]he Commission shall by rule, regulation, or order, in the public interest or for the protection of investors, require a registered face-amount certificate company to deposit and maintain, upon such terms and conditions as the Commission shall prescribe and as are appropriate for the protection of investors, with one or more institutions having the qualifications of paragraph (1) of Section 26(a) for a trustee of a unit investment trust, all or any part of the investments maintained by such company as certificate reserve requirements under the provisions of subsection (b) hereof.”

2. Applicant states that the Form of Agreement contains numerous provisions designed to maintain and safeguard its assets, including provisions governing the (i) holding, segregation, registration, depositing, and delivery of securities and (ii) the payment of monies and maintenance of bank accounts, as well as (iii) provisions establishing procedures to cure any defaults by the Applicant on its obligations under the Certificates and procedures for periodic reporting and inspection of the assets. Applicant further states that, although tailored for the specific activities of a face-amount certificate company, these provisions are similar to those contained in custody agreements between registered open-end management investment companies and their custodians.

3. Application asserts that its discretion to employ and terminate the Custodians is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. Applicant states that it may add or change the Custodians for many reasons, including, but not limited to: (i) the availability of superior or specialized services through other Custodians, (ii) dissatisfaction with the quality of a Custodian's services, (iii) fee increases or the availability of comparable services from other Custodians at more competitive rates, (iv) changes in a Custodian's management, location, financial condition, or methods of operation, (v) regulatory developments or actions affecting the ability or qualification of a Custodian to serve as such, or (vi) a determination by a Custodian to cease offering its services.

4. Applicant also asserts that the process by which it will select and retain the Custodians is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. Applicant represents that, before entering into a Custodial Agreement, Applicant will request and consider relevant information regarding the Custodian, including, without limitation, information about its ability to provide the services required by Applicant's operations and the Act, its experience in providing such or similar services to other investment companies, the resources it intends to make available to Applicant in providing such services, the fees it intends to charge Applicant for such services, its internal controls, its ability to protect the assets entrusted to it, and its financial condition.

Applicant's Conditions

Applicant agrees that any order granted by the Commission pursuant to the application will be subject to the following conditions:

1. Before entering into a Custodial Agreement with a qualified custodian, Applicant will request and consider relevant information regarding the Custodian. Applicant's officers and/or investment advisers, as appropriate, will perform the above inquiry and will present their findings to the Board (as defined below).

2. Applicant shall only enter into a Custodial Agreement if (1) its substantive portions do not vary in any material respects from those contained in the Form of Agreement; and (2) that Custodial Agreement is approved by its board of directors (“Board”), including a majority of directors who are not an “interested persons” as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Act (“Disinterested Directors”).

3. The continuance of a Custodial Agreement shall be subject to annual review and reapproval by the Board, including a majority of the Disinterested Directors, to determine whether the quality of services provided by the Custodian remains satisfactory and the fees are reasonably competitive.

4. Each Custodial Agreement shall contain provisions to maintain and safeguard Applicant's Assets, including provisions governing the (i) holding, segregation, depositing, and delivery of securities, (ii) the payment of monies, and (iii) establishing of procedures to cure any defaults by Applicant on its obligations under the Certificates and procedures for periodic reporting and inspection of the Assets.

5. Applicant shall establish and maintain procedures to cure any defaults by Applicant on its obligations under the Certificates and procedures for periodic reporting and inspection of Applicant's Assets.

6. Applicant shall comply with Section 17(f) of the Act and the rules thereunder as if it were a registered management investment company.

7. Applicant shall obtain an amended order from the SEC prior to entry into a Custodial Agreement containing substantive provisions that vary in any material respects from those contained in the Form of Agreement.

8. Applicant shall comply with the Bank Secrecy Act (31 U.S.C §§ 5311 et seq) and the rules thereunder, including 31 CFR 1024.210, 31 CFR 1024.220 and 31 CFR 1010.230, as if it were a registered open-end management investment company.

9. Any advisory agreement entered into between Applicant and an adviser shall provide that the adviser will provide quarterly reports to the Board stating, as of the last day of the preceding quarter:

(a) the aggregate value of assets on deposit with the Custodian,

(b) the aggregate value of assets identified by Applicant as qualifying investments on deposit with the Custodian, and

(c) the aggregate amount of reserves, as governed by Section 28(a)(2) of the Act, required to be maintained by Applicant in respect of all outstanding Certificates.

The first quarterly report every year shall be made and certified by an independent public accountant and the others shall be verified by the adviser's chief compliance officer or his or her delegate.

10. Any advisory agreement entered into between the Applicant and an adviser shall provide that the adviser's compliance program shall include procedures for generating monthly reports of:

(a) the aggregate value of Applicant's assets on deposit with the Custodian;

(b) the aggregate value of assets identified by Applicant as qualifying investments on deposit with the Custodian; and

(c) the aggregate amount of reserves, as governed by Section 28(a)(2) of the Act, required to be maintained by Applicant in respect of all outstanding Certificates; and for the review of such monthly reports by the adviser's chief compliance officer or his or her delegate.

11. Any advisory agreement entered into between Applicant and an adviser shall provide that if, at any time, it is determined by the adviser's chief compliance officer or his or her delegate that the amount of Applicant's qualified investments on deposit with the Custodian is less than the required reserves, as governed by Section 28(a)(2) of the Act, the adviser and/or Applicant shall notify the SEC in writing of such deficiency promptly upon ascertaining such fact.

12. In the event Applicant were to default on any obligation under a Certificate, Custodian would be authorized, at the instruction of the Board or a court of competent jurisdiction, to cure the default as necessary to discharge Applicant's obligations. In connection with any such default, the Applicant shall notify the SEC in writing of such default promptly upon ascertaining that a default has occurred.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management, under delegated authority.

J. Matthew DeLesDernier,
Deputy Secretary.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-101636; File No. SR-NYSEARCA-2024-94]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; NYSE Arca, Inc.; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change To Establish Fees for the NYSE Arca Aggregated Lite Data Feed

November 15, 2024.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1)¹ of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")² and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,³ notice is hereby given that, on November 4, 2024, NYSE Arca, Inc. ("NYSE Arca" or the "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I and II below, which Items have been prepared by the self-regulatory organization. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to establish fees for the NYSE Arca Aggregated Lite data feed. The proposed rule change is available on the Exchange's website at www.nyse.com, at the principal office of the Exchange, and at the Commission's Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the self-regulatory organization included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of those statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant parts of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and the Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange proposes to amend the NYSE Arca Equities Proprietary Market Data Fees Schedule ("Fee Schedule") and establish fees for the NYSE Arca Aggregated Lite ("NYSE Arca Agg Lite") data feed,⁴ effective November 4, 2024.⁵

In summary, the NYSE Arca Agg Lite is a NYSE Arca-only frequency-based depth of book market data feed of the NYSE Arca's limit order book for up to ten (10) price levels on both the bid and offer sides of the order book for securities traded on the Exchange and for which the Exchange reports quotes and trades under the Consolidated Tape Association ("CTA") Plan or the Nasdaq/UTP Plan. The NYSE Arca Agg Lite is a compilation of limit order data that the Exchange provides to vendors and subscribers. The NYSE Arca Agg Lite includes partial depth of book order data as well as security status messages. The security status message informs subscribers of changes in the status of a specific security, such as trading halts, short sale restriction, etc. In addition, the NYSE Arca Agg Lite includes order imbalance information prior to the opening and closing of trading.

Background

The Exchange operates in a highly competitive market. The Commission has repeatedly expressed its preference for competition over regulatory intervention in determining prices, products, and services in the securities markets. In Regulation NMS, the Commission highlighted the importance of market forces in determining prices and SRO revenues and, also, recognized that current regulation of the market system "has been remarkably successful in promoting market competition in its broader forms that are most important to investors and listed companies."⁶

While Regulation NMS has enhanced competition, it has also fostered a "fragmented" market structure where trading in a single stock can occur across multiple trading centers. When multiple trading centers compete for order flow in the same stock, the Commission has recognized that "such competition can lead to the fragmentation of order flow in that stock."⁷ Indeed, cash equity trading is currently dispersed across 16 exchanges,⁸ numerous alternative trading systems,⁹ and broker-dealer internalizers and wholesalers, all competing for order flow. Based on publicly-available information, no single exchange currently has more than 20% market share (whether including or excluding auction volume).¹⁰

Proposed NYSE Arca Agg Lite Data Feed Fees

The Exchange proposes to establish the fees listed below for the NYSE Arca Agg Lite data feed. The Exchange proposes to charge fees for the same categories of market data use as its affiliated exchanges (namely, NYSE, NYSE American and NYSE National) currently charge. The Exchange believes that adopting the same fee structure as its affiliated exchanges would reduce administrative burdens on market data subscribers that also currently subscribe to market data feeds from the Exchange's affiliates.

1. Access Fee. For the receipt of access to the NYSE Arca Agg Lite data feed, the Exchange proposes to charge $1,500 per month. This proposed Access Fee would be charged to any data recipient that receives the NYSE Arca Agg Lite data feed. Data recipients that only use display devices to view NYSE Arca Agg Lite market data and do
