

system in accordance with Exchange Act Section 6(b)(5).

Further, the Exchange stated that waiver of the operative delay would be consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest because such waiver would allow the Exchange to immediately harmonize its supervision rule with the FINRA rule on which it is based without delay, thereby eliminating the possibility of a significant regulatory gap between the FINRA and Exchange rules, providing more uniform inspection standards across the securities industry, and helping to avoid confusion for Exchange Members that are also FINRA members. For these reasons, the Commission believes that waiver of the 30-day operative delay for this proposed rule change is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. Accordingly, the Commission hereby waives the 30-day operative delay and designates the proposed rule change operative upon filing.¹⁰⁹

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings under Section 19(b)(2)(B)¹¹⁰ of the Act to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.
