Abstract of Information Available

A total of two cultural items have been requested for repatriation. The two sacred objects are one shield and one cover. According to PMAE records, Mr. Sprigelburg, of Santa Fe, New Mexico, purchased the shield and cover, at an unknown date, from a member of the Santa Ana Pueblo community, after “trying to buy it for 20 years and from 3 generations.” Dr. Samuel Kirkland Lothrop purchased the shield and cover from Mr. Sprigelburg in 1915, and subsequently donated both the shield and cover to PMAE in 1916.

- The two sacred objects described in this notice are specific ceremonial objects needed by a traditional Native American religious leader for present-day adherents to practice traditional Native American religion, according to the Native American traditional knowledge of a lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization.

- There is a reasonable connection between the cultural items described in this notice and the Pueblo of Santa Ana, New Mexico.
