The Service prepared a draft environmental assessment to evaluate the impacts of issuing the proposed incidental take permit on the human environment, consistent with the purpose and goals of NEPA and pursuant to the Council on Environmental Quality's implementing NEPA regulations at 40 CFR parts 1500 through 1508. Additionally, the draft environmental assessment was prepared consistent with the Department of the Interior NEPA regulations (43 CFR part 46); longstanding Federal judicial and regulatory interpretations; and Administration priorities and policies, including Secretary's Order No. 3399.

Abstract: This 30-day notice is a renewal, with revisions, for the Hydrography Addressing Tool (HydroAdd), a website developed by the USGS National Geospatial Program, National Geospatial Technical Operations Center (NGTOC).

HydroAdd supports users by providing a mechanism for addressing (or referencing) diverse external datasets to the National Hydrography Dataset (NHD). For example, a user can utilize HydroAdd to reference the geographic locations of field observations of fish presence to the NHD. HydroAdd provides a framework for the management of addressed data and enables upstream and down-stream analyses within the context of the stream network. Any type of information can be addressed to the stream network, making this tool highly useful for a broad range of purposes that benefit the Nation.

HydroAdd users are members of the public, and include State, local, private sector, academic, or other users with a basic knowledge of GIS. To use HydroAdd, users must first share their geospatial data as a hosted web feature service from ArcGIS Online. HydroAdd displays the user's data as a web feature service in the browser window. Users can then utilize HydroAdd to address their data to the NHD. Note that HydroAdd does not allow users to edit the NHD. Users are strictly limited to editing their own data.

The information collection request is the user registration. Users must register at the HydroAdd website. When registering, users are required to fill out a profile with a username and email contact. This information is stored in the application database.

Modifications to improve the HydroAdd tool are currently in development. The modifications were necessary (a) to allow HydroAdd to use the latest hydrography product from the USGS 3D Hydrography Program (3DHP); (b) to implement an open-source hosting service for user data (GeoServer), rather than ArcGIS Online; (c) to authenticate users with login.gov rather than ArcGIS.com or DOI; (d) to update some of the underlying logic to speed GIS processing, and (e) to update the name of the tool to HydroAdd3d. These modifications do not affect the information collection.

Title of Collection: Hydrography Addressing Tool.
OMB Control Number: 1028–0129.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.
Respondents/Affected Public: 100.
