

topics related to the economy, financial markets, Treasury financing, and debt management. Following the working session, the Committee will present a written report of its recommendations. The meeting will be closed to the public, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 10(d), app. 2 and Public Law 103–202, section 202(c)(1)(B) (31 U.S.C. 3121 note).

This notice shall constitute my determination, pursuant to the authority placed in heads of agencies by 5 U.S.C. 10(d), app. 2, and vested in me by Treasury Department Order No. 101–05, that the meeting will consist of discussions and debates of the issues presented to the Committee by the Secretary of the Treasury and the making of recommendations of the Committee to the Secretary, pursuant to Public Law 103–202, section 202(c)(1)(B).

Thus, this information is exempt from disclosure under that provision and 5 U.S.C. 552b(c)(3)(B). In addition, the meeting is concerned with information that is exempt from disclosure under 5 U.S.C. 552b(c)(9)(A). The public interest requires that such meetings be closed to the public because the Treasury Department requires frank and full advice from representatives of the financial community prior to making its final decisions on major financing operations. Historically, this advice has been offered by debt management advisory committees established by the several major segments of the financial community. When so utilized, such a committee is recognized to be an advisory committee under 5 U.S.C. 3, app. 2.

Although the Treasury's final announcement of financing plans may not reflect the recommendations provided in reports of the Committee, premature disclosure of the Committee's deliberations and reports would be likely to lead to significant financial speculation in the securities market. Thus, this meeting falls within the exemption covered by 5 U.S.C. 552b(c)(9)(A).

The Office of Debt Management is responsible for maintaining records of debt management advisory committee meetings and for providing annual reports setting forth a summary of Committee activities and such other matters as may be informative to the public consistent with the policy of 5 U.S.C. 552(b). The Designated Federal Officer or other responsible agency official who may be contacted for additional information is Fred Pietrangeli, Director for Office of Debt Management (202) 622–1876.

Dated: April 3, 2025.

UNITED STATES SENTENCING COMMISSION

Request for Applications; Sentence Impact Advisory Group

AGENCY: United States Sentencing Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Commission has decided to establish a Sentence Impact Advisory Group as a standing advisory group to the Commission. Having adopted a formal charter for the Sentence Impact Advisory Group, the Commission is constituting the initial membership of the advisory group under that charter. The Commission hereby invites any individual who is eligible to be appointed to the Sentence Impact Advisory Group to apply by sending a letter of interest and resume to the Commission as indicated in the ADDRESSES section below. Application materials should be received by the Commission not later than June 6, 2025. DATES: Application materials for membership of the Sentence Impact Advisory Group should be received not later than June 6, 2025.

ADDRESSES: An applicant for membership of the Sentence Impact Advisory Group should apply by sending a letter of interest and resume to the Commission by electronic mail or regular mail. The email address is pubaffairs@ussc.gov. The regular mail address is United States Sentencing Commission, One Columbus Circle NE, Suite 2–500, South Lobby, Washington, DC 20002–8002, Attention: Public Affairs—SIAG Membership.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jennifer Dukes, Senior Public Affairs Specialist, (202) 502–4597. More information about the Sentence Impact Advisory Group is available on the Commission's website at www.ussc.gov/advisory-groups.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The United States Sentencing Commission is an independent agency in the judicial branch of the United States Government. The Commission promulgates sentencing guidelines and policy statements for federal courts pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 994(a). The Commission also periodically reviews and revises previously promulgated guidelines pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 994(o) and submits guideline amendments to the Congress not later than the first day of May each year pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 994(p).

The Commission recently adopted a formal charter for the Sentence Impact Advisory Group (the “SIAG”). The SIAG is a standing advisory group to the Commission established under 28 U.S.C. 995 and Rule 5.4 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. Under the charter of the SIAG, the purpose of the advisory group is:

(1) to assist the Commission in carrying out its statutory responsibilities under 28 U.S.C. 994(o);

(2) to provide to the Commission its views on the Commission's activities and work, including proposed priorities and amendments, as they relate to sentenced individuals;

(3) to disseminate information regarding federal sentencing issues to other sentenced individuals, families of sentenced individuals, and advocacy groups, as appropriate;

(4) to provide to the Commission its views on how the Commission may better incorporate into its work the perspectives of individuals affected by federal sentences;

(5) to assist the Commission in determining how it can best fulfill its duty under 28 U.S.C. 994(s) to “give due consideration to any petition filed by a defendant requesting modification of the guidelines utilized in the sentencing of such defendant, on the basis of changed circumstances unrelated to the defendant”; and

(6) to perform any other related functions as the Commission requests.

The SIAG shall consist of no more than nine members. Each member is appointed by the Commission. To be eligible to serve in the SIAG, a member must be (1) an individual sentenced for a federal offense, or (2) a family member of an individual sentenced for a federal offense. For appointment of the initial members of the SIAG and thereafter as vacancies arise, the Commission intends to openly solicit applications for membership from sentenced individuals and their families. The Commission intends that the SIAG membership shall be appointed in a manner that ensures diverse representation in background, demographics, types of offenses that led to sentencing, types of sentences imposed, geographic location, and other unique characteristics. The Commission also intends that the SIAG membership should aim to reflect the many perspectives within the federally sentenced population, including perspectives informed by differences in terms of age, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sexual orientation, and tribal membership.

All members of the SIAG shall serve not more than two consecutive three-year terms. However, the terms of the initial membership shall be staggered so that 3 members serve a term of three years, 3 members serve a term of two years, and 3 members serve a term of one year.

The Commission invites any individual who is eligible to be appointed to the SIAG to apply by sending a letter of interest and a resume to the Commission as indicated in the ADDRESSES section above.

UNITED STATES SENTENCING COMMISSION

Request for Applications; Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Research and Data Practices

AGENCY: United States Sentencing Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Commission has decided to establish the Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Research and Data Practices as an ad hoc advisory group to the Commission. Having adopted a formal charter for the Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Research and Data Practices, the Commission is constituting the at-large membership of the advisory group under that charter. The Commission hereby invites any individual who is eligible to be appointed to the at-large membership of the Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Research and Data Practices to apply by sending a letter of interest and resume to the Commission as indicated in the ADDRESSES section below. Application materials should be received by the Commission not later than June 6, 2025.

DATES: Application materials for the at-large membership of the Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Research and Data Practices should be received not later than June 6, 2025.

ADDRESSES: An applicant for the at-large membership of the Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Research and Data Practices should apply by sending a letter of interest and resume to the Commission by electronic mail or regular mail. The email address is pubaffairs@ussc.gov. The regular mail address is United States Sentencing Commission, One Columbus Circle NE, Suite 2–500, South Lobby, Washington, DC 20002–8002, Attention: Public Affairs—RDPAG Membership.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jennifer Dukes, Senior Public Affairs Specialist, (202) 502–4597. More information about the Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Research and Data Practices is available on the Commission’s website at www.ussc.gov/advisory-groups.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The United States Sentencing Commission is an independent agency in the judicial branch of the United States Government. The Commission promulgates sentencing guidelines and policy statements for federal courts pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 994(a). The Commission also periodically reviews and revises previously promulgated guidelines pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 994(o) and submits guideline amendments to the Congress not later than the first day of May each year pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 994(p).

The Commission recently adopted a formal charter for the Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Research and Data Practices (the “RDPAG”). The RDPAG is an ad hoc advisory group to the Commission established under 28 U.S.C. 995 and Rule 5.4 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure. Under the charter of the RDPAG, the purpose of the ad hoc advisory group is:

(1) to assist the Commission in carrying out its statutory responsibilities under 28 U.S.C. 991(b) and 995(a)(12)–(16);

(2) to study the best practices of other government agencies and nongovernmental organizations (including those that perform tasks or provide services not related to criminal justice) relating to the collection, maintenance, use, analysis, and dissemination of data relevant to the mission of such agencies and organizations, and the development and execution of research agendas;

(3) to report and make recommendations on how the

Commission may incorporate any best practice to more effectively carry out its statutory duties and responsibilities under 28 U.S.C. 991(b) and 995(a)(12)–(16), and fulfill its unique role as a clearinghouse for federal sentencing statistics and practices; and

(4) to perform any other related functions as the Commission requests.

The RDPAG shall consist of no more than 15 members. Of those 15 members, one shall be a representative of the Federal Judicial Center with knowledge and expertise in social science research, one shall be a representative of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts with knowledge and expertise in social science research, and not more than 13 shall be at-large members. Each member is appointed by the Commission. To be eligible to serve as an at-large member, an individual must have an extensive and diverse range of knowledge, expertise, or experience in social science research, including (1) social science research design; (2) data collection and maintenance; (3) conducting quantitative and qualitative analysis of data; or (4) public dissemination of social science research. The at-large membership shall be appointed by the Commission based upon open solicitation for applications from eligible individuals, with a preference to applicants with knowledge or experience in research relating to the criminal justice system.

The RDPAG will be established for a period of 18 months from the date of appointment of the Chair of the group. However, the Commission shall have the option, by majority vote of its membership, to extend the term of the group for an additional six months.

The Commission invites any individual who is eligible to be appointed to the at-large membership of the RDPAG to apply by sending a letter of interest and a resume to the Commission as indicated in the ADDRESSES section above.
